Description:

A fascinating ghost town which was once a gracious and wealthy gold mining town. Cue is a small town in the Mid West region of Western Australia, located 620 km north-east of Perth. Cue is a 7 hour drive from Perth or a 4 hour drive from Geraldton. Geraldton is a 1 hour flight from Perth.

Site Condition:

The town contains some of the most grandiose buildings found anywhere in Western Australia, and a great sense of permanence exists within the town because the miners who lived there in the early 1890s became very wealthy and wished to promote Cue as a place of importance and substance. Its buildings - most notably The Gentleman's Club, The Old Gaol, the Government Buildings and the Masonic Lodge - make a walk around the town a fascinating journey into the past. There
